DIED.

In Waterloo City, May 1, 1863, of Consumption
ROBERT E. LONG, aged 35 years.

Lines on the death of DAVID A. McBRIDE, a private in Co. G, 54th Reg. Ind. Vols., who died of camp disease, on the steamer Die Vernon, Jan. 19, 1863. Published by request of Mrs Rachel S. McBride.

Farewell my dear husband, I here yet remain,
But if I live faithful, I'll meet you again
In a world that is free from sorrow and pain,
Where no more will be heard the cries of the slain.

Where no fierce storm or tempest, or thunder shall roll,

Where the smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul;
Where peace, joy and pleasure forever shall reign,
We'll live there together with God and the Lamb.

Oh! hard was the time when we bid thee farewell,
From the scenes of thy home, O, no one can tell,
The tears of deep sorrow how freely did flow,
When the time it did come that bid thee to go.

Away from thy friends in a far distant land,
To meet the proud foe in a southern clime;
While there among strangers, far from thy home,
Away from thy friends, thou must die a'one.

No loved one was there to soothe thy death bed,
No darling sweet babe one lone tear to shed;
But far among strangers, thou must die alone,
Far from thy friends and the pleasures of home.

But sweet is the thought when freed from all care,
We will meet with our loved one that has gone on before;

Their amid the sweetest of music forever to reign,
All praise shall be given to God and the Lamb.

OBITUARY

William Brugh was born in Seneca County, Ohio, on January 11th, 1845, and died at his home in Traverse City on November 6th, 1926, age 81 years, 9 months and five days.

At the age of two and one-half years his father moved his family to Stuben County, Indiana, traveling in covered wagons. His boyhood was spent there. On March 30th, 1872, he was united in marriage to Emma L. McBride. To this union were born two sons, Glen who resides in Grand Rapids, and Ray of Traverse City; five daughters, Mrs. Nellie High and Mrs. Maude Pitt of Hudson, Indiana, Mrs. Daisy Getts of Kendallville, Indiana, Mrs. Ivy Pettengill of Oviatt, Michigan, and Mrs. Hazel Devendorf of Traverse City. There are also twenty-eight grandchildren, and ten great grandchildren.

The deceased brought his family from Indiana to Michigan in 1882, locating at Oviatt, Michigan. In what was practically a wilderness at that time. The past twelve years he has spent in Traverse City.

Besides the children there is a sister, Mrs. Mary Hagerman of Hillsdale, Michigan, and his wife, Emma L. Brugh, and a host of friends and neighbors who will mourn his loss.

this life July 24, 1883, aged thirteen years, eight months and seven days; Jacob Elmer, a bright and promising lad, still at home; and Samuel Warren, who died July 9, 1883, aged two years, six months and five days. Mr. and Mrs. Bunn are members of the Reformed Church. He is a citizen of public spirit, and has rendered valuable service in advancing the educational interests of the community.

JOHN BURMAN, farmer, P. O. Bellevue, Huron County, was born December 6, 1818, in New Lancaster, Fairfield Co., Ohio. His father, John Burman, of Pennsylvania, came with his parents to Ohio in a very early day; and during the war of 1812 worked at his trade as gunsmith for the Government at Franklinton, where Columbus now stands; he married Miss Catharine Fisher, of Fairfield County, also a native of Pennsylvania, and settled seven miles north of Findlay, Hancock County, in 1830, and there remained until their death. They were upright pioneers and left an honored name to posterity. Our subject is the third in their family of eleven children. He came to Flat Rock, this county, in 1843. He worked several years at his trade as carpenter, after which he established a steam saw-mill, and operated it for seven years on the place which he now occupies. He then settled down to farming, which has been his occupation ever since. He has acquired a fine farm of 110 acres of well-improved land. He has an excellent water supply on his place, which has never been known to fail. April 21, 1844, Mr. Burman married Miss Catharine Korner, daughter of Jacob Korner, and to this union were born following named children: Mrs. Melissa Buljer, Alonzo, Mrs. Fidelia Smith, Mrs. Adeline Reeves and Mrs. Olive Swindler. Mr. Burman is a life-long Democrat. He leads a life of useful industry, and is highly respected by the entire community.

WILLIAM CLEMENS (deceased) was born July 12, 1824, in Union County, Pennsylvania. His father, John Clemens, a soldier of the war of 1812, settled in Huron County, Ohio, near the Seneca County line, in 1831, and he and his wife finally moved to Adams Township, this county, where they remained until their death. William Clemens married, November 11, 1849, Miss Mary Ann Alexander, born March 31, 1829, in Coshocton County, Ohio. They lived in Huron County until 1862 when they settled on the present homestead in Thompson Township, this county. Here they acquired a fine farm of 340 acres of well-improved land in this and Huron Counties. This they obtained entirely by their own efforts. Their children are Lyman, Mrs. Clara Lofland, Mrs. Lucinda Thompson, Mrs. Rose A. Haywood, Charles, Mrs. Julia Higgins and Alice. Mr. Clemens was killed in the railroad disaster at Ashtabula, Ohio, December 29, 1876. He was an extensive dealer in stock during the last few years of his life. He took an active interest in the educational affairs of the country, and held the position of school director in both counties for many years. Seneca County lost one of its most useful and influential citizens when he came to his untimely death. His widow now resides on the family homestead. She is a consistent member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

HON. JACOB DECKER, P. O. Bellevue, Huron County, was born January 15, 1809, in Union County, Penn. His parents, John and Julia Ann (Royer) Decker moved to Wayne County, Ohio, in the spring of 1816, remaining there fourteen years, and finally settled in Thompson Township, this county, in 1830. John Decker died January 3, 1854, and his widow June 27, 1875, in the eighty-seventh year of her age. Their children were Jacob, John, Samuel, Adam (deceased), David (deceased), Mrs. Elizabeth Heater, Mrs. Sarah Bargner (deceased) and Mrs. Catherine Harpster. The subject of this sketch married, November 15, 1832, Miss Susannah Billman, a native of Washington County, Pennsylvania, and Mrs. Barb. Decker died March 1877, Mrs. Sarah of David and Lydia. She married Joseph Charles D., in Boyl. Jacob Decker is an affairs. He was ca offices, including ju educational affairs (missioner two terms the Ohio Legislature under the old consti and useful life, and remembrance the n: Decker.

HON. AMOS DECK, County, was born in Huron County, Ohio. His father, the Hon. Amos Decker, resides in Bellevue. He completed his education, and offered his services in the Ohio Legislature on account of physical infirmity. HISTORY OF STEUBEN COUNTY.

Peter D. Amerman. They have two children, twin daughters—Lura Bell and Lelia Dell, born March 31, 1884.

—Samuel W. Brown, section 2, Salem Township, is a son of George Brown, one of the first settlers of the township. George Brown was born in Oxford, Mass., Feb. 8, 1786. He was a soldier in the war of 1812, and subsequently went to Columbia County, N. Y. He married Betsey Wright, a native of Massachusetts, born Oct. 21, 1790. In 1837 they came to Indiana and settled on section 2, Salem Township, Steuben County, where he died Dec. 23, 1844. His wife died in 1880. They had a family of eleven children, five sons and six daughters, nine of whom are living. Samuel W. Brown was born in the State of New York, March 18, 1823. He married Elizabeth C. Wilson, a native of Richland County, Ohio, born in 1826, a daughter of John Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. Brown have had six children, only one of whom is living—Estella D., widow of Ira Woodford. Mr. Woodford died in October, 1884, leaving one child—Ruth Estella.

—Leander Brugh is the eldest of twelve children of George Brugh, who with his family settled in Steuben County in 1847. George Brugh was born in Pennsylvania in 1814 and when a boy moved to Columbiana County, and thence to Seneca County, where he married Catherine Clemens, also a native of Pennsylvania. In the fall of 1847 he came to Steuben County with a brother-in-law, William Clemens, who returned to Ohio. He was killed in the Ashtabula bridge disaster, on the Lake Shore Railroad, in December, 1877. Mr. Brugh bought eighty acres of land on section 16, Pleasant Township. He returned to Ohio and the following spring moved with his family to this county and located on his land. They came with teams and were accompanied by several other families, none of whom settled in Steuben County except his younger brother, William, who settled in Angola, where he lived a number of years, then moved to Salem Township and thence ten years later to Fulton County, Ind. Mr. Brugh erected a log house on his land and remained in Pleasant Township till 1852, when he moved to Salem Township and settled on section 2, where he remained till his death in 1856. His wife is living in Hudson. Leander Brugh was born in Seneca County, Ohio, in 1839, and has been a resident of Steuben County since 1848. He has always engaged in agricultural pursuits and has lived on his present farm since 1865. The part of Hudson that is in Salem Township is a part of his original farm. He platted and was the proprietor of that part of the village. He is one of the well-known, public-spirited citizens of Steuben County, and the success of Hudson is due, to a large extent, to his enterprise. In the summer of 1878 he built his fine brick residence, which is a model of neatness and architectural beauty. Mr. Brugh was married in 1862 to Susan Smith, a daughter of Daniel Smith. They have had five children—Ginevra, Ortha, Byron (deceased), Avery and Hurma, the eldest of whom is married to Sumner Bixler, a practical druggist of Angola.

Henry P. and Marvin B. Butler are sons of Daniel Butler, one of the first settlers of Salem Township. Daniel Butler was born in Grand Isle County, Vt., Nov. 28, 1793. He married Mary Prentice, a native of the same section of country. A friend, Adolphus Town, had settled in Jackson Township, Steuben Co., Ind., and sending back favorable reports of the country, Mr. Butler determined to move West and make a home for his family. In the early part of June, 1838, he left Vermont in company with his brothers, Loren and Jesse, and their families, and was four weeks on the route, going to Albany, N. Y., thence to Buffalo by the Erie Canal and by the lake to Toledo. He left his family at Toledo while he went into the interior and purchased ox-teams with which he conveyed his family to Steuben County, arriving in July. The three brothers purchased 500 acres on sections 5 and 8, Salem Township, on which they located and improved farms. Daniel's farm consisted of the east half of the southwest quarter of section 5, and the east half of the northwest quarter of section 8, and the northwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section 8, containing 200 acres, where he lived till his death in 1847. His wife died in 1879. They had a family of five children—Susan, of Angola; Harriet, deceased; Henry P., Marvin B., and Helen M., wife of David Gillespie. Henry P. was born in Vermont, March 16, 1831. He married Phoebe Clark, daughter of Matthew Clark. They have three children—Melvin C., Wallace J. and Alberta M. In the fall of 1877 he was elected to the State Legislature and served one term. Marvin B. was born Feb. 15, 1834. He married Harriet M. Fuller, daughter of Elsley Fuller. They have two children—Benjamin M. and Harry M. The Butler brothers are among the prominent citizens of Steuben County. Politically they are Republicans, and both earnest and practical temperance men. In ante-bellum days their home was on the line of the underground railroad, and was often the refuge of runaway slaves, many of whom were sheltered and assisted on their way to freedom. Marvin B.

AUBURN — This picture shows the interior of a store operated for many years by Mr. and Mrs. George Brugh. The store was located on West Seventh street, Auburn, in the building now occupied by Auburn Federal Savings and Loan Association.

The store was complete with pot belly stove, sacks of flour and potatoes by the bushel.

The Brughs did not have children of their own, but to the many children from Auburn and nearby surrounding area they were known as "Uncle George" and "Aunt Sadie." "Uncle George" frequently handed out free candy to children from the jars of candy shown on the counter on the right.

Brugh is the gentleman standing behind the counter, the man leaning on the counter is not identified.

Jack Randinelli, 701 E. Ninth St., Auburn, found this picture while going through the upper rooms of the Auburn Federal Savings and Loan building.

HELP — The Evening Star is in need of old pictures of scenes of DeKalb County. The pictures will be returned after processing.

Rev. Abe Tussing

Jennie M. Tussing

Jennie M. Tussing

Daughter and only child of Rev. A. H. Tussing and Mary Tussing, was born in Hancock county, Ohio, August 16, 1870, and peacefully departed this life in the home of her mother, in Hudson, Indiana, September 24, 1906, aged 36 years, 1 month and 8 days. At twelve years of age she gave her heart to God at Frontier, Michigan, and often glowingly recounted those happy hours in which she and many others were converted, baptized and received into the United Brethren church. As a minister's daughter she was loyal to her father's gospel ministry which extended over a period of twenty-seven years as a pastor, and did all her frail health would permit in advancing the cause which he represented. Her mother realized the comfort of her daughter's companionship in the hours of loneliness incident to the life of an itinerant's wife. How faithfully she did her part the neighbors well understand. Her father preceded her three years the coming November 4, to the good world. Her prayers and counsels at the fireside were for the church and to this she purposed her influence and share of interest in the material affairs of this life. Her well-marked Bible indicated a discriminating and devotional interest. She was called out of this life very suddenly. Upon returning from a visit to Montpelier, Ohio, she lay down to rest and was stricken with paralysis and remained unconscious for a brief time when death came to her relief. Her mother and relatives and others mourn with great grief but are supported by the bright hope of a joyful meeting in the better country. In the funeral services, Revs. W. and C. E. Hagaman and Mrs. Emma Baldwin assisted.

W. H. CLAY.

Our Dead.

Rev. A. H. Tussing died at Hudson, Indiana, November 4th, 1903, aged 59 years, 7 months and 5 days. He was born in Fairfield county, Ohio. His mother, now 86 years of age, is a daughter of Bishop Samuel Hiestand. When 24 years old he came to Indiana and in 1867 was married to Miss Mary L. Brugh. He returned to Ohio for two years and was there gloriously converted. Again coming to Indiana he remained but a year then settled on his farm east of West Unity, Ohio. He joined the North Ohio conference at Hicksville, Ohio, September 11th, 1874, and in 1876 received his first appointment to a circuit and until this fall has travelled ever since under conference assignments, four years of that time as presiding elder with unusual efficiency. He was a man of great physical energy and endurance; in spirit and deportment a clean man, a man of God possessed with great courage, zeal, persistence, and fortitude. He was excellent in management, was sociable, hospitable, devotional and whether in home or church his presence was a signal for good cheer. His preaching was never aimless nor thoughtless but consisted largely of bright, pithy interpretations and applications of God's word, crisp sayings and apt illustrations. Though vigorous in his rebukes his kindness won those who were faulty and none was more tender than he with the penitent. Without special literary training he yet made the truthful impression of that rare quality known as common sense, broadness of sympathy and great power of executing plans for success. His pointed preaching, his ability to arouse and wisely direct the united energies of the church under God brought thousands to conversion and the greater proportion of these into the church. Many of the most substantial members in North Ohio are fruits of his ministry. He labored, but greatly multiplied his power to do good by bringing other laborers into the vineyard of the Lord. Seven ministers, among them Revs. Wilmoth, Houghtby, Gilbert and E. C. Mason, he delighted to speak of as his "sons in the gospel." He knew how to build churches and to organize the officary and otherwise the classes for better service. No sacrifice was too great for him to make whether of means, ease or health, and the kindly admonitions given him by his friends in recent years that he cease his consuming exertions were turned aside by his intense zeal for the cause of Christ. His last church work was a revival service in the tent at Adrian, Michigan, commencing in June. Returning from this July 7th, he was too weak, unaided, to make his way into the house. His prolonged labors and exposures had culminated in renal and pulmonary afflictions which soon terminated his earthly life. The morning prior to the date of his death he told his wife and daughter that he would not long be with them but they should not weep, that he had sweet peace in Jesus, and that Jesus would care for them. Shortly before his death, stroking his daughter's hand he said to her, "All, all is well." Conscious to the last, at midnight without a struggle he fell on sleep in the Lord. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints." Twelve or more ministers were present at the funeral services and besides the sermon brief addresses were given by Revs. J. D. Snyder, O. G. Alwood, L. S. Wilmoth, A. H. Dunlap, G. Frederick, H. H. Houghtby, and E. C. Mason. He leaves a wife, daughter, mother, sister and four brothers, three of whom are ministers, and hosts of friends throughout the church to mourn his departure. May the sweet gospel hope of meeting him in heaven be fully realized. W. H. CLAY.

AUBURN RESIDENT, 84, IS FOUND DEAD

Mrs. Sadie Brugh believed to have Died from Heart Attack at Her Home at 215
West Fifth Street

Mrs. Sadie Brugh of 215 West Fifth street, Auburn, was found dead in her bed by neighbors about 9:30 a. m. Thursday. Mrs. Brugh, widow of the late George Alred Brugh, was 84 years of age.

She had suffered a heart attack last New Year's Day and was hospitalized for several months after that. Upon her release from the hospital she was taken to a rest home in Butler where she remained for about seven weeks.

She was born April 18, 1872, in Angola, the daughter of the late Harry and Elvery Gregg Weamer. She and Mr. Brugh were married in October of 1900 at Hudson and the couple resided in Hudson for approximately four years before moving to Auburn.

Mr. Brugh operated a cigar factory behind the building housing the Auburn Federal Savings & Loan association in Auburn for several years and then operated a grocery store.

Mr. Brugh died in 1921 and after his death Mrs. Brugh moved to Gary, Ind. She stayed there for about 12 years before returning to Auburn.

She was a member of the Methodist church in Auburn and the En Ami club.

The only survivors is a nephew, Kenneth Greenlan of Wilmington, Dela., and three cousins, Mrs. Georgia Borst of 603½ South Main street, Auburn, Mrs. L. G. Albright of St. Petersburg, Fla., and Mrs. Grace Hibbs of St. Helena, Calif.

A brother, Willy, died at the age of four and a sister, Mrs. Maude Greenlan, also preceded her in death.

The body was removed to the Dilgard & Cline funeral home in Auburn where friends may call after 10 a. m. Friday.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p. m. Saturday at the funeral home with the Rev. Albert L. Clarke, pastor of the Methodist church in Auburn, and the former M. E. pastor here, the Rev. C. C. Collins, Fort Wayne, officiating.

Burial will be in Woodlawn cemetery near Auburn.

Lists of Germans from the Palatinate

Author: John Tribbeko

This work identifies those persons who emigrated from the Palatine region of Germany to England in the year 1709 (most of whom continued on to America). For each of the nearly 2,000 heads of household who are named, the following information is provided: occupation, age, marital status, ages of sons and daughters, and church affiliation.

Bibliographic Information: Tribbeko, John. Lists of Germans from the Palatinate. 1909. Reprint, Baltimore: Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 1990.

immediate subject of this personal sketch, remained at the parental home until he reached the age of twenty-three years. Oct. 30, 1879, he married Francis E. Hunter, daughter of Lane and Julia Hunter. This marriage has been blessed by the birth of three children, viz.: Virle, deceased; Harry O., and Oscar R., deceased. Mr. Brugh and his wife are members of the Methodist church, and in politics he has adhered to democracy. Though he began life as a poor man, Mr. Brugh has been very successful as a tiller of the soil and stock-raiser.

JAMES B. BRUGH, a son of Joseph Brugh and a brother of George W. Brugh, who is mentioned above, was born in Aubbeenaubbee township, Fulton county, on April 24, 1857. He remained under the parental roof until he was twenty years of age, and worked on the farm with his father and brothers. He began life for himself at the above age, as a partner with his brother, George W., at farming. Subsequently the partnership was dissolved and since Mr. Brugh has farmed alone. He has prospered and now owns an excellent farm of 160 acres. His aged mother resides with him, as has been noted in the sketch of George, his brother. Mr. Brugh has always been a staunch democrat, politically. He is a member of the fraternal order known as the Knights of Maccabees. He is a representative citizen, industrious and persevering, and has won the reputation of being such in the estimation of all who know him.

NOAH BRUMBAUGH, a representative farmer and citizen of Fulton county, is a native of Fairfield county, Ohio, and was born March 16, 1834. His parents were Isaac and Catherine (Zerkle) Brumbaugh. The father was born in West Virginia in 1803, and died at the home of the subject of this sketch, in this county, in 1884. He was a son of David Brumbaugh, who was of German parentage. Mr. Brumbaugh's mother was born in old Virginia. She bore her husband twelve children, of whom five are now living. The home of the family was in Fairfield county, Ohio. The father was a farmer by occupation and was a highly respected citizen. Noah Brumbaugh's youth was spent on the farm and farming has been his main pursuit. In youth his educational advantages were very poor, but through the avenues of books and papers he has become well informed on many subjects of general interest, and no man stands a warmer friend of education than does Mr. Brumbaugh. He remained under the parental roof until he was nineteen years old. Learning the carriage-makers' trade, he followed the same for about eight years, with the exception of the time he has been a tiller of the soil. At farming he has been very successful. He came to Fulton county in 1864, and located on his present farm near Kewanna. Mr. Brumbaugh and Maria Apt were united in marriage in 1862, in Fairfield county, Ohio, where she was born. Unto the union the following children have been born: Cora, once a teacher, now wife of William Mason, of Kewanna; Prof. Jesse F., graduate of DePauw phia, where he plied his trade, that of a tinner, grew prosperous and lived many years. He had several sons and daughters, of whom the following came to Fulton county, and here died. The first to come was Stephen Bruce, who came in 1837, and settled at the southeast corner of what is now called Bruce lake, in Union township. The lake received its name in his honor, but was called Kewanna by the Indians, in honor of one of their chiefs. In 1840 the above named Jacob Bruce came to the county and settled in the southwest corner of Aubbeenaubbee township. His sister and her husband, George Ultz, came to the county still later. In Pennsylvania Jacob Bruce married Hettie, a daughter of Christophal Wentzel, the father of Edward Wentzel, of whom mention is made elsewhere in this volume. Hettie Bruce, nee Wentzel, was born in Pennsylvania, Sept. 9, 1809. She died in this county, Sept. 11, 1871. She bore her husband the following offspring: Louisa, deceased; Edward, deceased; Mary, deceased; Benjamin, the subject of this mention; Elizabeth, Caroline, deceased; and Elizabeth. The father of these children became an extensive farmer and was for many years one of the substantial and leading citizens of the county. On his old homestead the subject of this sketch now resides. He and his good wife were life-long members of the Evangelical church, and brought their family up in that church. Benjamin Bruce has always resided in Aubbeenaubbee township, and devoted his life to successful farming. In politics he has adhered to the principles of the democratic party. In 1890 he was elected treasurer of the county, an office he acceptably filled for one term, refusing to make a second race for the office. Oct. 1, 1868, Mr. Bruce married Mary J., daughter of William and Malinda (Lee) Moon, pioneer settlers in the county. Mr. and Mrs. Bruce have had four children, viz.: Jacob, who lived to the age of nineteen years; Willie, who died one year old; Nellie, the one surviving child, and Hettie, who died aged nine years. Mr. Bruce has lived an industrious, moral and honest life, and has won the esteem of many friends.

GEORGE W. BRUGH was born in Aubbeenaubbee township May 19, 1856. His father, Joseph Brugh, was born in Seneca county, Ohio, Sept. 28, 1822. He removed from Ohio to Steuben county, then to Fulton county, in which he settled on a farm adjoining the present farm of George W. Here his death occurred March 29, 1874. When he came to this county he came by wagon, and owned a span of horses, a wagon, and possessed but $2.50. He grew prosperous, and at the time of his death owned a good farm of 160 acres. His widow now resides with her son, James B. Brugh, whose personal sketch is given elsewhere in this work. Joseph Brugh became the father of ten children, viz.: George W., James B., Arabella, Albert M., Edward, Lillie, Elmer, Nannie, deceased; Lucy, deceased, and Laura. All the living children are residents of Fulton county. George W., the Copy verbatim on this form the information you find in the various records or books as you do your research. (You will find differences in records.) Make a separate sheet for each search or each name or family on your line found in a search. Then, after information has been extracted from all sources, you may easily make comparisons of statements, judge value of each, and record correct data on a permanent form such as A1, F1, P3 or P6. See The Sixth Edition THE HOW BOOK FOR GENEALOGISTS for additional suggestion regarding the use of this sheet.

S.U. Clark, the carriage manufacturer, died at Orland, August 29.

The following are among the farmers who have erected fine dwellings this summer: Eli Klink, Leander Brugh, Levi Bigler, and W.A. Greenamyer.

Ezekial Brown has been nominated by the Republicans for representative, Orville Goodale for clerk, Robert H. Johnson for auditor, Samuel Beight for treasurer, William H. Keyes for sheriff, W.H. Twitchell for recorder, Charles Shackford for county surveyor, Dr. Fuller for coroner, John McClue, R.H. Goodard and Moses Gonser for commissioners.

DESIGN FROM BOSTON — Steuben County's courthouse, a two-story brick structure, was fashioned after Boston's Faneuil Hall, also known as the Cradle of Liberty. Built in 1868, the structure recently was shorn of its green ivy cover when the bricks were given a sandblast facelift. — Staff photo by John Sorensen.
